

Friends,

Welcome to Mommy Hustle Nation where we are not just business partners, but we share in each others' goals to become GOAL friends. We are all about changing lives one step at a time, starting with our own families. As the founder and owner of Mommy Hustle Nation, I take great pride in this business because I too am a mommy with similar desires as you.

I am a wife and mother of three beautiful children. I have twin girls who are eleven years old and a son who is a quite active four year old. In addition to this, I work full-time in the Human Services industry and I am also an internet entrepreneur. One day I hope to transition into full-time entrepreneurship. Like many of you, I do it all for my family. I am always on my grind and hustle for whatever I want. I give everything I do 100 percent and with the strategies that I teach you, you can too.

A great way to earn some extra cash and gain incentives at the same time is through referral power. Once you join the Hustlers Tribe, an exclusive Facebook group, you'll have a network of professionals that can educate you on how to do this.

Again I can't express how happy I am to be sharing pieces of my life. As an islander from the beautiful country of Jamaica, I embrace life and I enjoy helping others. Mommy Hustle Nation is our ticket to financial freedom. As I share my best practices, my journey is your gateway.

Sincerely,

Janielle Saddler-Barnett, Founder aka "The Hustle Maven"
